HARDY NEWTON

IS PREPARED FOR WAR BUT REMAINS NEUTRAL

Will Try to Accomplish a Peaceful Reconstruction of Government's Finances Which Suffered From Balkan Wars—Holds Same Position as Italy in Present Struggle—King of Greece Believes It Will Take Land and Sea Attack to Force Dardanelles—Russians Reported to be in Control in the Carpathians and Are Selecting Their Route Into Hungary. Austrian Peace Rumor Again Revived—A German Submarine Base Was Discovered in Norwegian Waters—Invisible Ink Carried News to Germany.

[By Associated Press.]
Rome, April 9.—The Tribuna quotes the King of Greece as saying he believes the allies cannot force the Dardanelles without a combined land and sea attack.

Also as saying Greece is in the same position as Italy. She has made military preparations, but has not abandoned neutrality.

He said he would be guided by events, be prudent and try to accomplish a peaceful reconstruction of the government's finances which suffered seriously as a result of the Balkan wars.

RUSSIANS PICK ROUTE TO HUNGARY

[By Associated Press.]
Petrograd, April 9.—With the Russians in possession of all the main slopes and summits in the Beskid mountains here, army officers here say the Austrian operations in the Carpathians have collapsed.

The Russian general staff is considering the best route into Hungary, which is made difficult by the deep snow in the passes.

Once the Russians reach the southern slopes, where signs of spring are beginning to appear, the only serious obstacle will be the artificial defenses which it is believed the Austrians have erected.

The Russians do not believe Germany can spare more men to stiffen the Austrians here.

The country between the San and Laborez rivers is considered the best route.

The possibilities of Austria asking for peace with Russia have been revived here.

French Statement.

[By Associated Press.]
Paris, April 9.—(Official.)—The French made new progress between the Meuse and Moselle.

At Eparges the French captured German trenches which were filled with dead. There the French repulsed two counter attacks.

All the French progress in Mont Mare was retained, despite violent counter attacks.

At Ailly the French captured new trenches, securing six machine guns and two mortars.

The British repelled a night attack.

German Statement.

[By Associated Press.]

Berlin, April 9.—(Official.)—The Belgians were again driven from the demolished hamlet of Drel Grachten. Despite the French suffered heaviest losses and were unsuccessful between the Meuse and Moselle, the battles continue fiercely there.

The French attacks on the whole front were unsuccessful.

The Germans are progressing slowly at Ailly. In retaliation they bombarded the villages situated behind the German positions.

The Germans bombarded with incendiary shells the city of Rheims, where there were many French troops and batteries.

Rebel Attacks Repulsed.

[By Associated Press.]

Rome, April 9.—The Italian troops in Tripoli, protecting the gathering of the barley crop near Misda, repulsed an attack by a thousand rebels. The Italian casualties were 118. The rebels' loss was heavy.

Discovered Submarine Base.

[By Associated Press.]

Copenhagen, April 9.—Norwegian aviators sent to search for a reported secret German submarine base in Norwegian waters, say they found several German submarines hidden behind the cliffs in Bergen Bay. They ordered them to leave or intern.

Invisible Ink Carried News.

[By Associated Press.]

London, April 9.—Three persons were arrested and charged with sending military information to Germany by means of invisible ink. One claims to be an American. All gave German names.

LORIMER ET AL MUST STAND TRIAL

Charged With Conspiracy to Wreck Bank—Motion to Quash Overruled.

[By Associated Press.]
Chicago, Ill., April 9.—William Lorimer, former United States Senator, and other officials of the defunct La-Salle Street Trust and Savings Bank, must stand trial on State charges of conspiring to wreck the bank. Their motion to quash the indictment was overruled today. Today's charges are distinct from those in the Federal court, which had to do with the La-Salle Street National Bank, which was transformed into a State institution which failed.

RECEIVERS FOR BIG NEW YORK CONCERN

Greenhut Company, Capitalized at Six Million Dollars, Forced Into Receivers' Hands.

[By Associated Press.]

New York, April 9.—Receivers were appointed today for the J. B. Greenhut Company, operating a department store here with an authorized and outstanding capital stock of $6,000,000. The liabilities were named at slightly more than $3,000,000. The assets will approximately reach $7,000,000.

Later it was announced the total outstanding securities of the Greenhut Company were $12,000,000. The proceedings were friendly.
